MARINE

The S. S. Nippon Maru sailed at 4 o'clock yesterday with a small number of through passengers and eleven from Honolulu. Those leaving here for the Orient are: Albert Fries, Mr. and Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Rice and daughter, H. Worthy, Miss May Worthy, Amelia Brand, Mrs. C. E. Handlen, Mrs. J. F. Eddy and Miss C. Eddy.

Two hundred tons of coal were loaded here. Freight for the East carried consists of 2000 tons of general cargo.

BIG LIST FOR KINAU.

The steamer Kinau had a full passenger list yesterday, sailing at noon with seventy-four cabin passengers, of whom twenty-two were booked for the Volcano. The Oregon girls were among these and there were a large number of citizens at the Interisland wharf to give them a send-off. In their honor the Hawaiian Band was in attendance at the sailing. A number of Honolulu divines and church workers left for Puna to attend the meeting of the Evangelical Association of the Island of Hawaii, which convenes on Thursday. Among these were Rev. Dr. Scudder, Rev. M. G. Santos, J. M. Martin and Rev. O. H. Gulick and Mrs. Gulick.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The next mail from the Coast will arrive on the Alameda, due on Friday.

A full cargo of sugar was taken out yesterday afternoon by the schooner Robert Lewers, bound for San Francisco.

The ship Marion Chilcott was towed out of the harbor shortly after one o'clock yesterday, sailing for Monterey with sugar.

The dredger Governor, now on the marine railway being repaired to the extent of new sheathing and spuds, will be off tomorrow.

Lieutenant J. F. Carter, who is coming to relieve Lieutenant Commander A. B. Niblack, is expected to arrive on the Alameda on Friday.

On the transport Dix, which sailed for Manila yesterday, were 450 head of horses and mules, which had been in the government corrals until yesterday morning.

The steamer Mauna Loa brought 2500 bags of coffee, 3049 bags of sugar and 32 head of cattle from Kona yesterday as part of her cargo. Good weather on the trip is reported.

The S. S. Korea is due tomorrow morning from the Orient and will probably continue on for the Coast in the afternoon. A large number of Honolulu passengers are expecting to sail on her.

The Likiep sailed at five o'clock yesterday afternoon on her regular run to Maui and Lanai, taking in addition to her general cargo some eighty tons of coal for Mahukona. This is off her usual course and will doubtless mean that she will arrive late at her destination.

The bark Andrew Welch will finish discharging her cargo tomorrow and begin loading sugar for C. Brewer & Co. Among the items making up the cargo brought from the Coast were 77,700 beer bottles, all empty, for the Honolulu Brewing and Malting Co., which should keep up to the demand for some little time. It was only recently that a big shipment of empties was made from this port for Seattle.
